

Hobbies of Hollywoodites

Movie performers, like other individuals, frequently turn to hobbies as secondary interests. Ella Raines (above) now is raising cocker spaniel puppies.

John Garfield, who has been painting but two years, recently sold one of his works to a calendar company.

Ruth Hussey shows her son, Robbie, some of the stamps she has collected. She specializes in blocks of uncanceled United States stamps, and her collection is valued at several thousand dollars.

Control-ette

BY FASHION FOUNDATIONS CORP.

A SECRET YOU
FIGURE IN!

Inside—exclusive construction gives buoyant support.

Nude Jacquard, knitted elastic panels. Talon zipper. Fully lined.

Back—paneled for restraint, flexibility. Can't roll over, create a bulge.

$5.95

What's the secret? CONTROL-ette's engineered control . . . the Chevron-and-ray arrangement of elastic and light, flexible stays that lift, support and taper the figure without pinching or pressure! Even heavier figures are coaxed into better posture, into looking and feeling slim-hipped, active, youthful! Model shown, 12", 14" 15", 16" length, 25-40.

Other models at $7.95
